

President Chris welcomed Leo Johns, Duncan Howes, Judy Taylor, Honorary member Kevin Hyland, Eduardo and A.G. Ken Moore.

Secretary Fay reminded Board Members of the Board meeting next week and advised members of the following:

1st March - normal meeting including Induction of two new members.

8th March - no meeting due to Public Holiday

15th March - no meeting (transferred)

18th March - Thursday. Group Study Exchange Presentation (Partners Night) RC of Somerset will be joining us and members from Burnie and Smithton have been invited to attend.

We have received a Thank you from the Rotary Foundation for our Donation of $1000 which helps to provide literacy kits for developing countries, reforestation, cataract operations, malaria bed nets and many other projects in all corners of the world including Australia.

Also a Thank you from the Rotary Foundation Trust for our $500 donation towards Polio Plus. In 1985 when Rotary launched this program there was an average of 1000 cases A DAY ACROSS 125 COUNTRIES. Now less than 1000 per year are recorded and only 4 countries remain affected.

Anyone interested in the Bike Ride in conjunction with the District Conference please see the Secretary.

FELLOWSHIP REPORT - SUE HOPE

Sue advised that we will be holding a Brazilian Night at the Yacht Club - date to be advised.

PROGRAM - GRAEME SAWARD

Don't forget that our meeting on the 15th March has been transferred to the 18th March for the GSE Team Presentation. They are from the Loire Family in France.

On the 22nd of March our Guest Speaker will be Edgar Penzig a renowned Historian who is a conference quality speaker. Partners and guests are welcome.

MUSIC HALL

Mike Dixon gave a brief outline of the Marketing Meeting which was held. Some of the points from this meeting are:

1. Overhead expenses will be cut to the bone especially expensive advertisements in The Advocate. We will concentrate on a letter box drop, L J Hooker newsletters, inexpensive posters, Rotary District Website, Coast to Coast in the Advocate and Town Talk Advertisements.
2. A program to be produced with paid advertising to cover costs of same and hopefully make a profit.
3. The theme of convicts to be reproduced on the tickets, the tables, posters and the supper.

A list of names was taken as to who can do what for Music Hall and it was a very positive result.

COMMUNITY SERVICE - TREVOR HOPF

Trevor advised the members of a letter received from Leigh Newman the President of RC of Somerset concerning a hanger at the Airport for the Royal Flying Doctor Service. They are seeking funds from Wynyard Lions, Burnie Lions, Burnie Rotary, Somerset Rotary, Wynyard Rotary and Smithton Rotary to provide approximately $30,000 toward the Hanger which will enable people to be transferred into the aircraft out of the cold and wet.

Members will be doing Letterbox drops around Wynyard for Bowelscan which will start on the 1st of March. Both pharmacies in Wynyard will be participating.

Clean Up Australia Day
All hands on deck

The 7th March is Clean Up Australia Day and we have been allocated the area from Dr's Rocks to the swimming pool.

We will meet at Rotary Park at 2.30pm as the Foreshore market will be over by then. We need to do the beach area as well as the roadside. There is a lot of rubbish along the road near the Seabrook Golf Course. I suggest that if you have your own gloves that you bring these as I have noticed in the past that the ones supplied are often small and thin.

Thanks, Trevor

RE: Moonah Rotary Club

I advise that the new permanent meeting place for the Moonah Rotary Club's weekly luncheon meetings, starting at 1pm, is the Lenah Valley RSL at 188 Lenah Valley Road, Lenah Valley.
