

OUR MEETING HELD MONDAY 1ST MARCH

President Chris welcomed Duncan and Di Howes, Leo & Marcia Johns, Bill Turner (Guest of Julie Murray & Steve Seaford) , Rekha and Eduardo.

President Chris also advised members not going to the District Conference that the Wynyard Club would be holding a Cabaret night on Saturday 27th with our own Rodney as part of the entertainment and Tiger Dowling as Guest Speaker.

Fay also reminded members concerning the GSE Team visit and asked members to indicate numbers for the meeting on the 18th. We have also received a receipt and thank you for another Shelterbox - many thousands of these have been sent to Haiti and many thousands more are needed to house the people during the monsoons.

COMMUNITY SERVICE - TREVOR HOPF

1st March - Bowelscan commences. Thanks to all those who have done their letter-box drops. (Rotarians and partners don't forget to do YOUR test!)

7th March - Clean Up Australia Day

8th May - Fundraising Garage Sale. Proceeds to be shared between Community and International Service. We require donations of anything -please ask around.

Trevor also spoke on the request that we had received to provide funds to erect a patient shelter at Burnie Airport for the Royal Flying Doctor Service. Mike Dixon moved that we support this and Mike Cook seconded the motion. Carried. This was then discussed at the Board Meeting and approved.

INTERNATIONAL SERVICE - KAYELENE SWEENEY

Lamingtons for Haiti - Kaylene gave out order forms for all of us to get orders from neighbours, friends, work colleagues and the like. Just think, we sell a dozen lamingtons for $8 and the State Government will match this.

NEW GENERATIONS - ROBERT STOKES

Spoke on candidates for RYPEN and MUNA and also advised that we had received a letter from Table Cape Primary School seeking a donation to their breakfast club.

FINES

Rodney - for forming a splinter group to the District Conference

Chairman Fred - for not asking about a fellowship report

Andy - for never having eaten a lamington

President Chris - for being a 'sneaky' President

Fay - paid a Happy Two Dollars as their daughter Kaylene who is also a Rotarian in Lismore recently organised a Trivia night (questions supplied by Fay) and raised $3,300 for a Rotary Sustainable Cambodia project. Kayelene is currently in Cambodia working on this. Also, their daughter in law Sue is now a registered volunteer in Fiji working at the Lautoka Hospital. Sue is a Speech Pathologist and she is assisting children with speech, especially those with cleft palates. There has been a recent Rotary Interplast Team at Lautoka Hospital carrying out surgery on these children.

INDUCTIONS

Duncan Howes and Leo Johns were inducted and presented with their Rotary International Pin as well as their Club badge. Duncan's classification is Painting & Decorating and Leo's is Manufacturing Planning. Their wives Di Howes and Marcia Johns were also warmly welcomed to the Club.

President Chris and myself had the pleasure of meeting both of these couples in their home and explaining the privileges and responsibilities of Rotary.

Congratulations to Duncan and Leo and we wish you many happy years with our Club and Rotary International.

Presidents Report

Have had a great response to invitations sent out for our next meeting on Thursday 18th March, apart from guests from Somerset and Burnie Rotary Clubs, we will have quite a few invited special guests including our Group Study Exchange Team District 1510, Loire Valley, France.

GSE Co-ordinator Rotarian Fay has done a wonderful job in planning the itinerary starting on Thursday 18th and finishing on Sunday 21st. Any member wishing to join the Team would enjoy the places that Fay has chosen for their visit. We have engaged the help of Danielle Forlot who will help as an Interpreter for us and the French Team, so when question time comes around after they have given their power point presentation, you will have to direct your questions through her.

Quite a disappointment that our guest speaker Edgar Penzig will not be available on Monday 22nd, this is due to illness, but I believe he will endeavour to visit our Club at a later date.

Welcome and congratulations to our two new members Rotarian Duncan Howes and Rotarian Leo Johns, I hope you both enjoy Rotary and the success you will gain from being a member.

The lamington drive looks like being a winner I hope we have enough Lamingtons to sell at the Wynyard Show, we will know the results at the meeting on Thursday 18th March, and possibly how much we have made for the Haiti Appeal, my thanks to all those who have helped Rotarian Kayelene with the making, baking, dipping and selling.

Yours in Rotary

Chris
