Presidents Report

At the time of sending this report to our Bulletin Editor, I am able to report on the Garage Sale held on Saturday 8th. I must firstly thank all those Rotarians and their Partners who gave up their valuable time to help run this successful fund raiser for our Club. Master Chef Trevor and his apprentice must have cooked at least 150 sausages topped up with onion and tomato sauce. Rotarian Peter managed to get all the bargain hunters who wanted to haggle over prices, Rotarian Wolf who charmed all his customers with delightful music playing on one of the CD players. Rotarian Albert who nearly sold a pram with a baby asleep in it, Rotarian Mike who must have sold hundreds of books and novels as I observed lots walking out with heaps of books.

And all the lovely Ladies, all smiling sold heaps of trash and treasure to all the people that passed through. Rotarian Kayelene will be able to tell us more on Monday night.

Do not forget President Elect Rays request to make up a good attendance at the District Assembly, which will be at Archers Manor, Launceston next Sunday 16th May. It will be an early start for us and car pooling will be organised.

Yours in Rotary

Chris

How can you tell if you have been spending too much time at home on the Internet?

Your spouse emails you a message saying dinner is ready and she/he uses the address

"Your spouse@home.com."

A man and his son walk into a shoe store when the sales man asks, "How can I help you?" The man says he has a dinner to go to and is looking for the right type of shoes. The salesman asks if he is looking for dress shoes, the little boy pipes up and says, "but my dad doesn't wear dresses."
