Presidents Report

In the next few months some members from our Rotary Club will have to undergo filling in child protection forms if dealing or working with young people under the age of 18years .In Tasmania this is mandatory under the Department of Child and Family Dervices. New forms have to be submitted every three years.

I must congratulate Rotarian Satish for his Rotary Information talk on India's involvement in Rotary, something none of us new anything about, and from the information he presented to us, a lot of preparation was involved.

I would like two more Rotarians from our Club to make themselves available for the Rotary Youth Driver Awareness Program, the Tasmanian Government has recognised the value of teaching young students in every high school to have access to the RYDA road safety education program, and have boosted the funding by contributing $100,000.

Thanks to all Rotarians for your input into helping us choose the right person for Rotary awards, it's not all that easy when trying to decide.

Yours in Rotary

Chris

DISTRICT GOVERNOR NOMINEE ELECT (2012 - 2013). It was announced on Sunday at the District Assembly that James Wilcox of the Rotary Club of Longford will be our District Governor in the 2012-2013 year (subject to a two week appeal time). James will also be taking on the role as District Chairman for Bowelscan for 2010 - 2011.

MEETING HELD MONDAY 17TH MAY

President Chris announced that we have been invited to the Lions Club of Wynyard Changeover.

Lions Club of Wynyard Changeover Dinner
Saturday 29th May at 6.30 for 7.00 pm
Wynyard Service Club
Cost $26 per head.
RSVP 21 May to Secretary Derek Putt on 64350202 or canddputt@iprimus.com.au

Chris mentioned the District Assembly that was held on Sunday 16th and how good it was.

Members were asked their opinion in updating our Honour Roll with those Presidents that are now deceased. The general consensus was that this should be attended to.

Chris also advised that PP Graeme Saward has taken 3 months Leave of Absence from the Club and has resigned as Music Hall Director. This position has been taken over by Andrew Nichols.

Secretary Fay read an email from Greg and Anne Smith and a letter of apology for our Changeover from Bob Kay.

President Elect Ray advised members that our District has signed a one year partnership with Beyond Blue which will be beneficial to both organisations. Beyond Blue will support the District and Clubs with Guest Speakers and Mental Health Forums.

End Polio now! The District is embarking on a huge day for February 26th when all members will be asked to 'rattle the can' and collect donations from their local communities in order for Rotary to meet its target and in turn rid the world of Polio.

Our Guest Speakers Richard Muir-Wilson, Pam Rodwell and Terry Smith spoke to us on the Community Garden and showed us the work that has been done. Unfortunately their funds are depleted and they urgently need assistance. This garden is of great benefit to the elderly citizens of our community.

Music Hall rehearsals are in full swing, backdrops are happening and the marketing committee are on the ball. Marketing this year will be a low key event as far as cost is concerned. Everything will be done 'in house' in black and white and will be promoted via low cost or no cost avenues. This will include a letterbox drop so we will need many volunteers to undertake this.

Heads 'n Tails: won by Kayelene Sweeney

Queen of Hearts: won by Judy Charles who drew the 4 of hearts?

Chris advised that he took two young people to MUNA in Deloraine and stopped for some time to observe. Again, a great experience for these young folk with one team now going on to contest and debate further.

Doug is seeking reports from the President and Chairs of Committees so that he can publish the Annual Report, please.

Our Changeover Dinner - Saturday 19th June.

Please give your RSVP together with your payment so this can be recorded to Secretary Fay as soon as possible, please. If there is someone that you think should be invited please let President Chris, President Elect Ray or Secretary Fay know.....maybe a possible new member that would enjoy the evening.

Satish has had his fair share and more of Rotary this week. Monday night, Thursday Night at RYLA, Sunday at District Assembly and back again on Monday night. A great effort Satish. A few make-ups here. Satish gave a report on the RYLA Dinner which he attended. He said they were an outstanding group of young people and that we should really try to get a candidate next year. He was very impressed with a young lady that was deaf and all that she achieved and gained from the experience.

P. Chris asked members whether they would support a Saturday morning Sausage Sizzle at Woolworths on a weekly basis. This would involve a roster where you would probably be rostered on four times a year. The response was very positive so Chris will now go and formalise the arrangement. This could be an excellent fundraiser for our Club.

For Rotary Information, Rod gave us a talk on his experience in this Club since joining and emphasised how Music Hall had enabled him to feel very welcome and part of the Club.

GROUP STUDY EXCHANGE

Selections for a Rotarian Team Leader and Team Members will occur much earlier this year. The selections for Team Leader will take place on Sunday the 15th August and the Team Members selection will take place on the 29th August. The first team will be to District 7570 Virginia - leaving 20th February and the second team will be to District 5390 Montana and will depart on the 9th April.
