Presidents Report

As my term draws to an end I have been inspired by the many achievements our Rotary Club and individual members have done. We do not seem to lack the energy even though we are an ageing group (not everyone).

I know that under the leadership of incoming President Ray and his Committee's they will all be making that commitment to achieve all his goals, and look forward to achieving the Rotary theme for year 2010/2011, Building Communities, Bridging Continents.

If anyone is interested in going to the Community Response to Eliminating Suicide (CORES) program. The program empowers communities to recognise signs of suicide, intervene before a crisis occurs and lead the person at risk to the appropriate services.

 Where      Waratah-Wynyard Council, Council Office.
 RSVP        Friday 25th June

This years Production of Music Hall (Convicts, Wenches & Sailors) is in full swing, from rehearsals, backdrops, advertising, and front of house. This week tickets go on sale, letter drops will be starting shortly, flyers will be placed in shop windows, advertisers will be approached this week, and of course all those involved in the stage production will be working on their lines, so for the next five weeks or so its GO-GO-GO.

Yours in Rotary
